DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

3. Claims 64-79 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kara et al.(6,233,568) in view of Barnett et al (6,369,840).

4. With respect to Claim 64, 68-79: Kara discloses the use of a shipping management computer system (see abstract) for:

- a. Receiving a set of package specifications (Figure 8, Box 802) ;
- b. Determining multiple shipping rates (first and second) for a first carrier (Figure 8, Boxes 807 and 808) ;
- c. Determining multiple shipping rates (third and fourth) for a second carrier (Figure 8, Boxes 807 and 808) ;

Art Unit: 3629

- d. Receiving a request from a user to ship a package using one of the services by one of the carriers (See Figure 8, Column 5, lines 56-67) ;
  - e. Facilitating the delivery of the package (Column 6, lines 1-6).
5. Kara, however fails to disclose simultaneously displaying the shipping rates. Barnett discloses the use of a calendar which can be used for online purchasing of services (column 2, lines 63-67), where there is simultaneous display of services offered with respect to providers and time and date (See Figure 9). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Nicholls and Kara to display the calculation of shipping rates, calculated by Nicholls and Kara in the format of a simultaneous display, as disclosed by Barnett, in order to provide a multi-layers system wherein different categories can be overlaid on one another providing a single integrated display that allows a user to order or purchase a system based on the calendar day and time (See Barnett, column 2).
6. With respect to Claims 65 and 66: See Figure 8, Box 807.
7. With respect to Claim 67: See Barnett, Figure 9.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 64-79 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Art Unit: 3629

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
